

fonYou winner of Red Herring Europe and Mobile Merit Awards

Barcelona, 28 May 2010 - fonYou is proud to announce that it is winner of both the 2010 Red Herring Top Europe 100 Award and the Mobile Merit Award under the category Mobile Services - Carriers.

On May 27, at a special awards ceremony in Paris, it was announced that fonYou has won the 2010 Red Herring Top Europe 100 Award, which honours Europe's 100 most innovative tech companies. Amongst the winners of past Red Herring Awards are companies such as Google, Yahoo, Skype and YouTube.

Red Herring is a global media company that aims at bringing together the world's best high technology innovators, venture investors and business decision makers (<http://www.redherring.com/>).

A week earlier, on May 19, fonYou received the 2010 Mobile Merit Award under the category "Mobile Service - Carriers". These bi-annual awards are presented to outstanding companies, individuals and technologies in the mobile industry that are likely to have a significant impact on the market.

The Mobile Merit Awards are organised by Global Results Communications, a U.S.-based, full-service public relations and digital media firm (for more information please visit <http://www.globalresultspr.com/> & <http://www.mobilemeritawards.com/>).
